

Jennifer Radford is a founding partner of Tereposky & DeRose LLP. She is an experienced litigator who has appeared before Canadian courts, administrative tribunals and commissions and in alternative dispute resolution proceedings. She represents domestic and foreign clients in the full range of trade and investment matters, including investor-state, trade remedies and customs administration. Her expertise includes interpretation and application of investment treaty provisions, enforcement and compliance matters concerning foreign corrupt practices, export controls, economic sanctions, trade embargos, import and technology transfer controls, and blocking measures (Cuba). She regularly advises on the interpretation and application of trade agreements and investment treaties including the recently signed EU-Canada Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement. She also represents foreign States and Embassies carrying out diplomatic missions in Canada, acting as counsel in precedent setting court cases involving complex state and diplomatic immunity issues and assisting in official diplomatic communications with the Government of Canada regarding a wide range of diplomatic relationship issues.

Representative Work

- Counsel to foreign governments on investor-state law, including the provision of complex assessments of the likelihood of success on both jurisdiction and merit in various potential investor-state disputes. Advice has included comprehensive analyses relating to the investment provisions of the Canada-EU Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement and the Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement/Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership. Currently acting as co-counsel to the Government of Mexico in the following claims under NAFTA Chapter Eleven: Lion Mexico Consolidated LP v. United Mexican States, ICSID, Joshua Dean Nelson and Jorge Blanco v. United Mexican States, ICSID, and B-Mex v. United Mexican States, ICSID.
- Counsel for domestic industry and exporter/importer clients in numerous Canadian anti-dumping and countervailing duty investigations, including: Dry Wheat Pasta, Polyethylene Terephthalate Resin, Fabricated Industrial Steel Components, Welded Large Diameter Carbon and Alloy Steel Line Pipe and Concrete Reinforcing Bar. In 2017, our team secured commercially important exclusions in two investigations. In another investigation, we obtained for our client a dumping margin that was more competitive than other subject exporters by more than 35%.

- Counsel and advisor to a number of foreign States and Embassies carrying on missions in Canada, including assistance on diplomatic communications with Canada and providing advice on a wide range of sensitive diplomatic relationship issues.
- Counsel to States, their Embassies, and their diplomatic representatives and employees in superior and appeal court proceedings where complex state and diplomatic immunity defences arise. Also provision of advice on the scope and limitations of State and diplomatic immunity available as their missions in Canada are carried out.
- Counsel and advisor on the protection and repatriation of foreign State property on Canadian soil, including the status of diplomatic bank accounts and the question of their inviolability. As counsel for the State of Libya, successfully repatriated a multi-million dollar state property situated in Canada purchased through corrupt funds by the son of the late dictator of Libya, Colonel Muamar Qadhafi.
- Counsel and advisor to foreign governments, financial institutions, and foreign and domestic businesses on the applicability and effect of Canadian economic sanctions, including advice on the applicability and scope of economic sanctions, how to ensure ongoing compliance with economic sanctions, and how to manage and voluntarily disclose breaches of economic sanctions while limiting the risk of administrative or criminal penalties.
- Counsel and advisor to foreign and domestic businesses on the scope and applicability of on Canada's Access to Information regime, including how to prevent a third party from accessing commercially confidential information from the Government.
- Counsel for suppliers in complex procurement challenges before the Canadian International Trade Tribunal.
- Counsel and advisor to domestic exporters on the applicability of export control laws, including performance of internal investigations/audits, the development of internal export control policies and procedures, and undertaking successful voluntary disclosures.
